

Assignment

1) What is C programming?

C programming is an high level language which was developed by Dennis Ritchie for system programming.

2) What are the features of C?

- * Structured programming language
- * Compiler based language
- * It is an "portable"

3) What are the applications of C?

- * Embedded systems
- * Game development
- * Engineering applications

4) Difference between Interpreter / Compiler?

Compiler:

- * Translates the entire program at once.
- * Errors will be shown after compiling whole program.
- * Fast execution.

Interpreter:

- * Translates program line by line.
- * Errors will be checked line by line.
- * Slow execution.